

INSTALLER CHECK LIST: CCW-705 Self-Adhering Air/Vapor Barrier

- CCW Representative Contact Information.
- Installer Qualification by CCW
- Verify if components of system match requirements for specified project warranty
- Determine if ABAA Certification is required in Project specification
- Pre-Construction Meeting - Determine construction sequence and trade involvement in providing continuity at windows, shelf angles, roof-wall, expansion joints, structural steel and other complex conditions. Establish schedule & start date of air barrier installation.
- Product properties impacting schedule: Air barrier cannot be exposed greater than 60 days. Building should not be heated until wall insulation is installed.
- Understand process and obligations for installation and testing of air barrier in mock-ups
- Understand process and obligations of Owner's quality assurance program, which may entail inspection and testing of Work.
- Use CCW-705, best above 60°F, DO NOT INSTALL if below 40°F.
- Use CCW-705 LT, best below 80°F, DO NOT INSTALL if below 25°F
- Consult local VOC Regulations with regard to CCW Contact Adhesive (Primer) usage.
- Substrate inspection - sheathing-over-stud; Proper fasteners and spacing, fasteners driven flush, broken corners fixed, board joints and corners within tolerance.
- Substrate inspection – concrete block: Mortar joints struck flush. Droppings cleaned from surfaces and ties. Holes, voids and cracks addressed.
- CCW Product Data Sheets, MSDS's and Shop Drawings
- Have Access to Project Spec and Drawings
- CCW Products: CCW-705/ LT, Mastic - LM 800 XL or CCW-704, Contact Adhesives (Primer) – CCW-702, CCW-702 LV, CCW-702 WB or CAV-GRIP, CCW-201 or other approved sealant
- Tools & Supplies:
 - Steel or Rubber Rollers: Smaller one for seams, larger one for full membrane
 - Medium nap roller with refills for CCW Contact Adhesive
 - Chip brushes for installation of CCW Contact Adhesive in corners
 - Utility knife
 - Tape measure
 - Quart-tube caulking gun for Mastic
- Safety Equipment
 - Personal Protection Devices and OSHA Approved Safety Equipment for all workers on the jobsite